After setting sales records to begin 2021, the Jills Zeder Group, of Coldwell Banker Realty, continued its dominance in the market by receiving the top spot in the entire nation on the 2021 REAL Trends The Thousand list.

The REAL Trends The Thousand ranking is based on residential real estate transactions in 2020 from real estate agents and teams across the U.S. The categories were based on closed transaction sides and closed sales volume and a real estate group needed 75 transaction closings or $30 million in final sales volume to qualify. As a team, the Jills Zeder Group closed over $1.2 billion in transactions in 2020.

“The Jills Zeder Group has proven that it is the No. 1 team among the top tier of real estate professionals, not only in its community but in the nation,” says Duff Rubin, president of Coldwell Banker Realty in Florida. “At Coldwell Banker, we are very proud of this outstanding achievement that recognizes the unparalleled expertise, service, and work ethic that the team offers each of its home buyer and seller clients.”
